Invitation

Welcome to the 6th Edition - World Congress on PEDIATRICS & NEONATOLOGY Conference.

After the grand success of four years of Pediatrics conferences, we solicit your gracious presence at the “6th Edition - World Congress on PEDIATRICS & NEONATOLOGY” (WCPN-2025) which will be conducted during Sept 25-26, 2025 as a hybrid event at Berlin, Germany and virtually. The conference will emphasize the theme “Novel Discoveries in PEDIATRICS & NEONATOLOGY”.

WCPN-2025 is now opening a call for sessions, aiming to develop a program that brings together the very best of innovation and progress happening across the full spectrum of Pediatrics and neonatology, at national, regional, and global levels. This is a unique opportunity for Pediatrics and neonatology experts to share their knowledge and experience with the global Pediatric community, gain visibility, and contribute to advancing Pediatrics and neonatology.

It will feature invited keynote speeches, peer-reviewed paper presentations, and academic visits. This conference provides opportunities for the delegates to exchange new ideas and application experiences face to face, establish business or research relations, and find global partners for future collaboration. Network and collaborate year-round with a global community of leaders who are working to advance Pediatrics and neonatology Research and treatment.

Sincerely yours.

William Jones,

WCPN-2025 conference chair

BERLIN, GERMANY

Berlin, the capital of Germany, is renowned for its rich history, cultural diversity, and vibrant arts scene. Once divided by the Berlin Wall, the city now stands as a powerful symbol of reunification and progress. Its iconic landmarks include the Brandenburg Gate, the Reichstag, and the Holocaust Memorial, while it also boasts world-class museums, a thriving tech industry, and an eclectic music scene. At the heart of its cultural heritage is Museum Island, a UNESCO World Heritage site, home to institutions such as the Pergamon Museum and Altes Museum. Berlin's music offerings range from classical performances at the Berlin Philharmonic to cutting-edge electronic music in renowned clubs like Berghain. The Berlin International Film Festival (Berlinale) is also among the world's most prestigious. Berlin's skyline blends history and modernity, with landmarks like the Berlin TV Tower (Fernsehturm) alongside contemporary architecture. As a true melting pot, the city's diversity is reflected in its food, neighborhoods, and cultural events. Green spaces like Tiergarten and Tempelhofer Feld offer serene retreats, while the city's extensive public transportation system—comprising the U-Bahn, S-Bahn, buses, and trams—ensures easy mobility. The city is also known for being exceptionally bike-friendly. A unique fusion of history, culture, and innovation makes Berlin one of Europe's most dynamic and forward-thinking capitals.
